UNCLE JOE'S RETURN LONELY
No Crowd Escorts Him Home, as in Former Years.

Danville, Ill., March 19.--"Tell the American people that I think it great to be a plain American citizen again," said Joseph G. Cannon as he emerged from his residence this afternoon after a refreshing sleep. Mr. Cannon travel worn and alone, arrived from Washington last night. Unlike his return in former years when he was escorted to his residence by at least half of the town's population, he went unattended to his home. This was due to the uncertainty of his arrival.

WRENN GETS MORE DELAY

Alleged Slayer of Man at Hinsdale, N. H., Gets Habeas Corpus Writ.
Halifax, N. S., March 21.--A writ of habeas corpus for Jack Wrenn, whose extradition to the United States has been ordered on a charge of murder committed in Hinsdale, N. H., was granted yesterday. The writ is returnable on Monday. The time limit under which Wrenn could have remained in the country under the extradition order would have expired today. The United States police officers who are coming here to take Wrenn back to New Hampshire have been advised of the development.
